Fans handcuff themselves to goalposts amid a series of protests

Have Town played their final match at Camrose stadium?

By Matthew Brown

IS this the end of the line for the Camrose?

Basingstoke Town played what is increasingly looking like their final match at their home ground on Saturday, amid controversial plans to sell off the stadium for redevelopment.

Fans expressed their anger with a pitch protest ahead of the match.

The Dragons have agreed a provisional groundshare with Farnborough for next season, but say they would prefer to find a ground in the borough.

The deadline for a decision on whether the Farnborough groundshare will be taken up is this Sunday.

"The ground has been there for 70 years, people have grown up there, taken their children, even spread ashes," said supporter and Keep Football in Basingstoke organiser Simon Hood.

Emotions were running high before the game against Hitchin and there was drama before a ball had even been kicked.

With around 10 minutes to go until the 3pm start, a number of fans invaded the pitch and stood defiantly in the centre circle with a 'Keep Football in Basingstoke' banner.

At the same time, two disgruntled fans handcuffed themselves to the goalposts.

With the two teams waiting in the tunnel, the fans refused to move, prompting Basingstoke captain David Ray to speak to the supporters. They cleared the pitch after his intervention.

Blue and white streamers were thrown as the players finally came out of the tunnel, littering the goalmouth, and the game eventually kicked off seven minutes late.

Rubber snakes rained down from the stands and 12 blue smoke bombs - one for each decade the club has existed for - were let off.

Angry chants were also aimed at chairman and owner Rafi Razzak and club officials closed the bar at half-time due to fears of trouble.

Earlier, the club's official Twitter account appeared to be hijacked, with one tweet containing a picture of a grave with 'Basingstoke Town FC, 1896-2017, RIP' engraved on it.

The tweets were later deleted.

The club's Interim Management Group (IMG) insisted they "absolutely wanted to stay in Basingstoke".

"The IMG want to be at the Camrose," said Will Wilkinson, the club's head of digital and marketing and IMG member.

The club says chairman Rafi Razzak intends to sell the Camrose to developers so he can "recover his loans to the club through the redevelopment of the Camrose site".

Using trains 'could take 2,000 lorries off the A34'

By Adam Flinn

Lorries overtake on the A34. There have been several fatal accidents involving HGVs in recent years

MORE than 2,000 large lorries a day could be taken off the northbound A34 if more effort was made to transport freight by rail.

A report published by the Campaign for Better Transport found the railways could reduce road congestion on some of the country's busiest trunk roads.

At present there is an average daily flow of 4,800 five and six-axle articulated lorries from Southampton making its way north on the M3 and A34 past north Hampshire.

But the report found this could be dramatically reduced to around 2,200 if rail lines were upgraded and more goods transported by train.

Spokeswoman for the campaign, Philippa Edmunds, said: "This research confirms what we have long argued, that integrated rail and road planning is the best way to reduce road congestion, collisions and pollution.

"It shows that on certain strategic transport corridors it is possible to improve road conditions without needing to add more road capacity.

"Transferring freight from road to rail would bring serious additional benefits not quantified in this report – improved road safety and reduced air pollution and carbon emissions – and these should also be considered."

Restrictions on lorries have previously been called for on the A34.

These include preventing them from overtaking along the entirety of the A34 and reducing the speed limit to 50mph.

Campaign for Better Transport is calling on the Government to take this latest research on board when considering future investment.

The Department for Transport said: "We agree that rail freight offers real benefits for the environment and helps keeps bulky loads off the road network, helping to ease congestion for other motorists.

"We look forward to using these findings to help inform our coming road and rail strategies and are committed to working with the rail freight industry to support growth of the sector."

Attack leaves man with smashed jaw

A 36-YEAR-OLD man was left needing hospital treatment after being assaulted by two men he did not know in Basingstoke town centre on Saturday.

The victim was walking in Wote Street at around 3.20am when the attack took place.

One of the men punched the victim and knocked him to the ground, before the other man kicked him.

He was taken to Basingstoke hospital with a fractured jaw and a cut to his head, before being transferred to the Royal Surrey County Hospital in Guildford for further treatment.

The first attacker was described as white, in his mid to late 20s, had short black hair, was of slim build and was wearing black jeans and a long-sleeved black shirt.

The second man was also white, of a similar age, had blond hair, of average build and was wearing a blue-coloured polo top.

Detective Constable Dan Hayward said: "This was a very nasty assault and we would like anyone with any information to come forward. We know a number of people came to the aid of the injured man, including one man who drove him to Basingstoke hospital.

"Were you there? Did you help the victim? You may hold information that might help our investigation."

Walker grabbed

BASINGSTOKE: A woman walking in a park received an arm injury during an attempted handbag snatch.

The 22-year-old was approached from behind by a man off Shakespeare Road on April 20 between 8.45pm and 9.15pm.

The victim fell to the floor and the robber made off empty-handed towards the children's play park.

Anyone who saw what happened or noted a male acting suspiciously in the area should call 101 and quote 44170147662.

Jabs 'are vital'

HAMPSHIRE: Parents and carers are being reminded of the importance of vaccinating their children against serious diseases.

Jabs received in their early years are important in helping build protection against meningitis, diphtheria, polio, measles and mumps.

North Hampshire Clinical Commissioning Group said: "It is particularly important that children are fully up to date with all their jabs before they start school for the first time, which is when they come into contact with more potential sources of infection."

New foodbank

TADLEY: A new foodbank is due to open its doors next Thursday.

Basingstoke Foodbank has been working to make its service more accessible to people in crisis.

The new foodbank will be based in the Immanuel Centre at the Tadley United Reformed Church.

It will be open from 12.30pm to 2pm every Thursday.

You can't get quicker than a quick, fit vicar

By Matthew Brown

A QUICK, fit vicar is jumping into the saddle to pedal against global poverty.

Father Michael Smith, of Immanuel Church, Hatch Warren, near Basingstoke, will ride to Winchester Cathedral from St Marks Primary School on May 20.

He will be joined by members of Hatch Warren and Beggarwood cycling club for Christian Aid's 'Big Bike to Brekkie'.

It is all about getting cyclists from Hampshire to hit the road and converge on Winchester Cathedral for breakfast in support of Christian Aid week from May 14 to 20.

Father Smith said: "I'm delighted that our cycling club can support Big Bike to Brekkie and raise money for Christian Aid week.

"Three things that are close to my heart are cycling, charity fundraising and breakfast, so how could I resist?

"Our journeys will be nothing like those for too many people around the world living in poverty and forced to leave everything behind due to conflict and crisis."

Around 40 cyclists will make the journey in two groups with each taking a route they want to test themselves on.

Last year, kind hearted supporters from Hampshire raised nearly £200,000 for Christian Aid.

At the moment, the charity is tackling poverty in 39 countries across the world and money raised goes towards this work.

Stephen Dominy, Christian Aid's regional coordinator, said: "I am so pleased to be able to offer a new opportunity for the people of Basingstoke to get involved, set themselves a challenge and make a difference at the same time.

"A big thank you must go to the cathedral's outreach group who are generously covering the cost of feeding any cyclists who have raised sponsorship for the event."

Members of Hatch Warren and Beggarwood Cycling Club will be joining Father Michael Smith on the ride

AWE walkouts

HAMPSHIRE: Two more days of strikes have been planned at the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) as the dispute over pensions continues.

About 700 workers represented by trade union Unite will stage 24-hour walkouts on May 10 and 18 at AWE's two sites in Aldermaston and Burghfield.

This is on top of already announced strikes on May 4 and 8.

Unite is unhappy with changes to the pensions scheme, which came into effect on January 31.

Fourteen days of strikes have already taken place since the dispute arose in November.

AWE has previously said it is "committed to establishing future pension arrangements that are both affordable for our staff and attractive to future employees".

Election looms

HAMPSHIRE: The Hampshire County Council elections take place next Thursday.

Ten seats are up for grabs in the Basingstoke and Deane area, with a total of 41 candidates standing.

There are 78 seats, with the governing Conservatives holding 47 of them.

Results are expected early on Friday morning.

Uncertainty over future of club

as chairman at the end of the season, has previously said the club has been left with very few options after the plans for a new stadium were turned down by the borough council.

He said: "At numerous meetings since then, they have offered to help, but in reality they have not offered any new sites for us to consider. They seem unlikely to allow a retail development at the Camrose, which could help BTFC to build a new stadium within the town."

The council say finding the right option for the future of the club will take time.

Simon Bound, cabinet member for sport, said: "I have frequently reiterated to the club that there is no other public land in the council's ownership suitable for the relocation of the stadium for the private club at low or no cost, and stressed the need for formal planning advice on any possible sites."

Martin French, chairman of the supporters' club, was equally pessimistic, saying: "Wherever we (BTFC) go, we're still going to have problems financing the club going forward so I am deeply worried and concerned about this."

He mooted the idea that "some kind of fan or community ownership" potentially could be the way forward.

Basingstoke Town said they planned to update fans on the situation at the end of week.

Cars go up in flames at shops park

A FIRE destroyed two cars in Chineham.

Fire crews were called to the shopping park just before 5.45pm on Wednesday last week where they found both vehicles well ablaze.

Two crews from Basingstoke attended and left the scene just under an hour later.

The fire service said the cause of the blaze is unclear.

Fujitsu workers to strike again over jobs and pensions

By Matthew Brown

WORKERS at computer giant Fujitsu in Basingstoke will go on strike again today.

Staff will walk out for 48 hours in an ongoing dispute over job losses and pension cuts.

The Japanese IT firm plans to axe one in five jobs and cut pensions at its sites across the UK.

The moves have been met with a number of nationwide strikes since February – with more to come.

Unite affiliated employees at the Basingstoke site in Jays Close have now staged eight days of industrial action in total – the most recent being on April 24 following on from a 48-hour strike on April 20 and one day of action on April 13.

"The way Fujitsu is treating its workforce and keeping them in the dark over its plans for the future is beyond contempt," said Unite national officer Ian Tonks.

"This is a workforce that has worked hard to make Fujitsu in the UK highly profitable, yet their reward is job cuts and pension reductions, while the company frustrates Unite's attempt to minimise compulsory redundancies."

As well as these disputes over job security and pensions, Unite also wants Fujitsu to commit to becoming a living wage employer and recognition of the trade union as the union to represent workers who wish to join it.

All of this comes among the background of Fujitsu planning to cut and move 1,800 jobs abroad.

A further six days of strike action have been announced – bringing the total number to 15.

There will be 48-hour strikes on May 4 and May 11, along with a day's stoppage on May 8.

Fujitsu declined to comment.

Tips on solving cryptic crosswords

BASINGSTOKE: Ever wondered how to solve a cryptic crossword?

Tutor Ben Summers is teaching people how to do just that in a workshop at the Basingstoke Discovery Centre on Saturday, May 6.

Participants are asked to bring a cryptic crossword with them so they can begin putting their skills to the test.

It is running from 10am to 1pm. Tickets cost £15 and can be booked by calling 01256 478670, or going to hants.gov.uk/shop/home.

New campaign to target littering

HART: A new campaign is being launched by Hart District Council to tackle littering, which will see people fined if they are caught.

Environmental enforcement officers will be on the streets of the district to issue £75 fines for anyone caught littering, and £50 for those who fail to clean up after their dog.

John Elson, head of environment at the council, said: "We work hard to help keep the district clear of litter and we hope by introducing this new campaign, we can encourage people to stop littering and to keep Hart even cleaner."

Police station closes for good next week

ALTON: The police station in Alton will close its doors on Tuesday.

The building is being sold following a decline in the use of front counter services at the station, in Orchard Lane.

The nearest counter services will be in Basingstoke, Aldershot and Winchester.

Hampshire Constabulary's district commander Clare Jenkins said: "We want to reassure our communities that we will still maintain our patrolling strategy and high visible presence within Alton and the surrounding areas."

Councillor adamant no plans for alternative weekly bin collection

By Matthew Brown

A BASINGSTOKE councillor is adamant that alternate weekly bin collections (AWC) are not being proposed for the borough.

Hayley Eachus, the Conservative cabinet member for the environment, was responding to an allegation from a resident that she had given a clear indication at the Basingstoke over-55s forum meeting on April 12 that AWC was going to happen.

Cllr Eachus categorically denied this, saying the council was simply gathering facts at this stage and a final decision would be made later this year.

But she also said there was "no proposal on the table to go to AWC", despite it being one of two options that will be considered by the council's cabinet in September.

She said: "There is no proposal to go with AWC. Putting out two lots for tender simply means we are just gathering all the facts.

"This is a large contract and we must consider all options. We have a duty to consider best value.

"There is no proposal on the table to go to AWC and that has always been clear. We are gathering the facts and carrying out a market research exercise."

Council leader Clive Sanders had previously insisted in a council meeting on February 23 that there were "no plans for alternate weekly collections".

The idea of AWC was first raised back in January as one of a number of options being considered for future bin collection in the borough.

Responding to the resident's allegation, Cllr Eachus said: "I made it absolutely clear at the start of the meeting and a number of times throughout that no decision was being made at this stage.

"At no point did I give a 'clear indication' as alleged that fortnightly collections would be happening.

"I am saddened that by simply engaging with residents – which is surely a positive thing – I am being accused of misleading residents."

Hayley Eachus

Hospital radio marathon will celebrate volunteers

By Matthew Brown

HOSPITAL Radio Basingstoke (HRB) will be riding the airwaves this weekend as part of a marathon broadcast.

The radio station at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital is linking up with more than 30 other hospital stations across the country for a 48 hour-long nationwide 'BIG Broadcast' from 6pm on April 29 until 6pm on May 1.

"We're delighted to be involved in the BIG Broadcast," said Neil Ogden from HRB.

"It's a chance to promote the great work of hospital radio right across the country and to highlight the difference our volunteers are making to society every day of the week."

Neil will be joined by fellow presenter Mel Montagnon for HRB's contribution to the long-haul broadcast.

The pair will be hosting an hour of 80s tunes from 2pm on Sunday, live from HRB's studios.

Volunteers have given their time free to keep the entertainment going over the two days.

Richard Smith, lead presenter for the BIG Broadcast, said: "I'm so pleased Hospital Radio Basingstoke is joining in.

Neil Ogden ready at the mixing desk for the marathon 48-hour BIG Broadcast over the weekend

"This is the seventh time we've produced the BIG Broadcast and this year more stations than ever are signed up to take the programme.

"We want to create a fun, party atmosphere aimed at patients, staff and listeners at participating stations who are unlucky enough to be in hospital or recuperating over the bank holiday weekend."

ITV personality Lorraine Kelly and Wright Stuff presenter Matthew Wright have given their backing to the bank holiday broadcast bonanza, which celebrates and promotes the work of hospital radio and the dedicated army of volunteers which keep it alive.

Dad savours run support

A BASINGSTOKE runner put in a herculean effort to pile on the miles in the London Marathon.

Richard Pilbeam, above, from Chineham, finished the 26.2-mile course around the streets of the capital in four hours, 36 minutes and 56 seconds.

He is now closing in on his goal of raising £1,000 for the Ark Cancer Centre Charity.

"It was a great day and a great experience," said the 39-year-old. "The atmosphere is something you really have to savour. It was lovely to hear so many people supporting me and chanting my name as I ran round the course."

The father-of-two had extra motivation to run for the charity after losing his grandmother and mother-in-law to cancer.

"Thank you so much to everyone who has helped me on my journey," he said.

Annoying noise

BASINGSTOKE: Noise complaints received by the borough council have fallen from 872 in 2015 to 790 in 2016.

A study carried out by money-saving website lovemyvouchers.co.uk said this amounted to 4.45 complaints per 1,000 people.

The most common annoyances were domestic noise, barking dogs, construction and burglar alarms.

Parents' success

HAMPSHIRE: Just over 98 per cent of parents were successful in getting their children into reception classes in one of their three preferred schools, the county council says.

More than 15,000 applications were received, with 90.86 per cent getting in their first choice school.

VC hero tribute

NORTH HAMPSHIRE: A First World War hero from Stratfield Saye who won the Victoria Cross is to be honoured with a commemorative paving stone.

Lance Corporal James Welch VC carried out many heroic actions on April 29, 1917.

This Saturday – a century on – people will meet at the village hall from 10.15am ahead of a procession at 10.45am along New Street for the unveiling.

Arsonists given 474 years in jail thanks to task force

By Matthew Brown

MORE than 500 years of sentences have been handed down to arsonists in the county.

Work by the Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service's arson task force has led to 474 years in prison, 32 years of community service orders and 38 years of supervision orders.

Since the team was set up 10 years ago it has investigated 2,000 blazes and determined that 1,300 were deliberate.

They have just secured their 200th conviction.

The team boasted a 70 per cent conviction rate for the cases where suspects were charged.

The conversion rate has been achieved through forging some ground-breaking approaches, such as teaming up with the University of Portsmouth and studying and collaborating with world renowned authorities.

Arson task force and fire investigation station manager Damian Watts said: "The Hampshire team is special because we are given a high level of support from the service.

"Having dedicated fire investigation officers mean our skills and specialities are not diluted.

"We are also extremely lucky to have established a great relationship with Hampshire Constabulary and we have a police officer who works from the same office as us.

"The enthusiasm, dedication and energy of the team is inspirational," added station manager Watts.

£10k funds bonanza for community

COMMUNITY projects in Tadley are set to benefit from £10,000 funding from the town council after residents decided who was going to get the money.

At the annual town meeting, a 'You Decide' event was held where residents could visit the stands of the community groups that had applied for funding and glean information ahead of the vote.

Residents were allowed two votes for their preferred projects, with the top four choices securing the funding they had requested.

Tadley Primary School Parent Teacher Association received the most votes with 59 and will use their grant of £1,300 for their outdoor building space.

Second with 55 votes was St Peters Church, which received £2,000 for a composting toilet, while Hurst Community College got 31 votes for the same amount for a kitchen refurbishment and chairs.

Barlows Park will benefit from new dugouts after they got 28 votes for their bid of £2,000.

CCTV image of the man police would like to speak to in connection with the incident at a car park near the Maidenhead Inn

Man who lost keys walked out of pub to see his car being driven off

A MAN who was at a pub in Basingstoke saw his car being stolen moments later.

The 47-year-old victim was inside the Maidenhead Inn in Winchester Street when, at around 4.30pm, he realised his car and house keys were missing from his jacket pocket.

He left the pub and went to nearby Caston's Yard car park where he saw the thief sitting in his car, a black Alfa Romeo.

The car was then driven off after the victim approached and tried to open the driver's door. He was left on the floor.

The vehicle drove out of the car park via New Road and was later found abandoned on Wessex Close.

The thief has been described as European, slim, around 5ft 8ins, with short dark hair and wearing a dark woollen top.

Police have released a CCTV image of a man they would like to speak to in connection with the incident.

PC Teresa Webster said: "Do you recognise this man in the picture? We would like to identify him as he may have information to assist our enquiries.

"In addition, we would like to hear from anyone who saw a man acting suspiciously in the pub at this time, or saw an incident involving a black Alfa Romeo in Caston's Yard car park outside."

Anyone with information should call PC Webster on 101, quoting 44170125909 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

New village homes not in the right place, claims councillor

By Matthew Brown

A PAMBER Heath councillor has slammed a planning application for 64 houses in the village – saying they are "not in the right place".

Cllr Roger Gardiner, whose ward the proposed development is in, has concerns about developer the Hill Trust's proposal for land north of Pelican Road.

"For 64 house, you're talking a hundred-plus cars and additional traffic going along Silchester Road. The junctions along there just won't take it," he said.

"It's not the right place in terms of development in the area. I'm much happier with small scattered developments of up to 10 houses in various places throughout the ward, which will fit in much better."

Concerns have also been raised about the site's proximity to the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) at Aldermaston.

It is situated within a 3km emergency zone so all new housing development is effectively objected to by the Office of Nuclear Regulation.

Cllr Gardiner said: "There are a number of emergency evacuation zones and this development sits right in zone one. What they are concerned about is in the event of an evacuation, how quickly would they be able to let the traffic out?

"They should think about the traffic coming out on to Pelican Road and Silchester Road and you won't do that in a hurry.

"At the moment I can't see the borough recommending it for approval, so I would imagine it would probably go to appeal."

In the developer's design and access statement it said: "On the council's own site assessments, this application is consistently identified as being one of the most, if not the most, appropriate sites for housing development on the edge of Tadley.

"The site is not reasonably capable of being put to better use."

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Specialised mortgages for the over 55s

EQUITY RELEASE COUNCIL
25 YEARS OF SAFE EQUITY RELEASE
SINCE 1991

It's no secret that whilst the cost of living rises, pensions have yet to do so at the same rate. This deficit is leaving many Retirees in a vulnerable position - reliant on savings to cover unexpected bills or required home improvements. Not everyone can or wants to downsize their property.

For homeowners over 55, mortgage options have become significantly limited but there are products available. Lifetime Mortgages can help release the equity stored in the property for daily living costs or that urgently needed new kitchen, as well assisting customers trapped in 'Interest Only' mortgages or nearing the end of the mortgage term with no standard options available.

Michael Usher Mortgage Services has access to a number of different Lenders offering a range of products with flexible features and in some cases, guaranteed lifetime interest rates. With just one meeting you could walk out with a free, no obligation, quote. Our Advisers will take time to understand your circumstances and wishes, crucially though, they will help you identify whether there are different, better, options available to you.

If you're interested in knowing more about Lifetime Mortgages or have any other Mortgage questions, contact Sean Usher or Joe Capon on 01256 637000 or drop into the office at 35a Winchester Street, Basingstoke, RG21 7EE.

Competition

WIN two tickets to Reading Festival!

THE mighty Reading Festival returns on the August Bank Holiday with three incredible headliners in the shape of rap legend Eminem, indie giants Kasabian and British rock heroes Muse.

As always, there is a huge supporting lineup of the best artists from across the current musical spectrum. Among those joining Kasabian on Friday 25th August will be Bastille, Two Door Cinema Club, Fat Boy Slim, You Me at Six, Lethal Bizzle and Billy Talent.

Closing date: Friday, May 19.

Saturday 26th sees Major Lazer, Korn, Flume, Oxford's own Glass Animals, Andy C, While She Sleeps and Black Lips covering all the bases ahead of Eminem's unmissable headline show.

And before Muse take over the main stage on Sunday 27th August, fans can take in the return of the mighty Liam Gallagher, Blossoms, Giggs, Haim, Wiley, Marshmello, The Hunna and Ash across the various stages.

In fact almost 200 acts have been announced so far, with more to come including the BBC Introducing and Alternative stages for the best in comedy and up and coming acts. There really is something for every music fan to make Reading 2017 an unforgettable weekend with your mates.

For the full lineup and to buy tickets visit www.readingfestival.com

Win tickets!

We have a pair of weekend camping tickets up for grabs, and to be in with a chance of winning them, all you have to do is answer the following simple question:

Q: What is the title of Kasabian's forthcoming new album?

Life in Provence is just a killer

By Josh Cox

ENGLISH couple Peter and Suzy are living in Provence in 1939 in idyllic isolation - far, it seems, from the rumblings of the coming war.

But their peace is about to be shattered from within, when Suzy discovers she has been betrayed and Peter is not the man he claims to be.

Suzy's life is thrown into turmoil as the possibility arises that Peter may in fact be a ruthless killer on the run. A Scotland Yard detective arrives and events become even more complicated and frightening.

Lies, subterfuge and murder make this fast-moving thriller a dark and disturbing roller coaster of bluff and double bluff.

Receiving great reviews since it opened at the beginning of March, don't miss this good old fashioned thriller starring Brian Capron - best known for his role as serial killer Richard Hillman in Coronation Street - when it comes to Basingstoke from May 3 to 6.

Written by Brian Clemens, the man behind Sixties' and Seventies' hits such as The Avengers and The Professionals, this production has a plot that twists and turns and will have you tangled deeply in a guessing game; trying to figure out the secrets, the characters and reasons for their actions. It is both gripping and tantalising from the start until the very end.

The production is presented by Talking Scarlet, a company that has over 15 years experience in collaborating and producing shows for theatres in the UK and Europe.

Tickets for Strictly Murder are priced: Wednesday and Thursday, May 3 and 4 - £22; Friday and Saturday, May 5 and 6 - £24; 2pm performances are £19. There are discounts available for under 16s, students and concessions.

To book your place, call the Anvil Arts box office on 01256 844244, or visit anvilarts.org.uk.

Forging wonder

MUSIC: Musical genius Cherry Lee Mewis comes to The Forge this Saturday.

Marking the release of her BBC Sessions EP, Cherry is now touring the international stage, dazzling audiences and critics alike.

Adult tickets for the gig are £15.50 and the show begins at 8.15pm.

50 years of rock

MUSIC: Rhinoplasty, a rock and blues six piece band, are performing at Overton Rugby Club tomorrow evening.

The six seasoned musicians, who have a flare for having fun, cover a collection of the finest rock, soul and blues from the last 50 years.

This free gig starts at 8pm.

Force Ten blow in

MUSIC: The talented Force Ten will be making their way to The Swan in Sherborne St John this Saturday, April 29.

The four-piece band will be performing a perfect blend of classic and modern rock anthems all night from 9pm.

With free entry on the door, you can enjoy the party atmosphere at the fantastic venue.

Scheherazade and Sciliy

By Josh Cox

THE Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra will be bringing some exotic spice to Basingstoke when it performs a programme of Debussy, Lalo and Rimsky-Korsakov.

The concert begins with Debussy's Prélude à l'après-midi d'un faune, a seductive painting of a languid, sun-drenched Sicilian afternoon. It marked a turning point in musical history, with its tenuous grasp of tonality and harmony, and weaves a tantalising veil of hypnotic colours and textures.

This is followed by Lalo's Symphonie espagnole, an instant hit from its premiere in 1875. Despite its name, it is a true concerto in which the soloist is called upon to display significant feats of prowess on the violin. Although there are hints of guitar and castanets, the real 'Spanish' character of this music is more a matter of general atmosphere; sultry, impassioned themes and characteristic rhythmic patterns.

And finally, Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, a triumph of imagination over experience; a feast of sumptuous colours and brilliant instrumental effect by the man who practically wrote the book on orchestration.

The suite is bound together by a recurring motif, a bewitching melody sung by the solo violin: the voice of Scheherazade herself. It quickly became a favourite romantic showpiece and a landmark in the history of descriptive music.

Joining the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra is violinist Alexandra Soumm, a multi-faceted artist who is equally at home in concerto and chamber repertoire.

Born in Moscow, Alexandra started to learn the violin with her father at the age of five and gave her first concert two years later.

She later moved to Vienna to study Kuschnir and won the Eurovision Young Musicians Competition in 2004. Now based in Paris, she, along with two friends, founded the non-profit organisation Esperanz'Arts in 2012, which was the culmination of four years' involvement in charity projects aimed at creating opportunities through the arts.

In January 2013, Alexandra was named Godmother of the newly established El Sistema France.

Tickets for the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra at the Anvil on May 5 are priced from £14 to £40; under 16s and f/t students £10.

To book tickets, call the Anvil Arts box office on 01256 844244, or visit anvilarts.org.uk.

Crackin' karaoke

KARAOKE: Join Stars In Their Minds at The Beacon in Basingstoke on Friday for a night of karaoke fun.

The evening will feature much loved classics for fans of a variety of music from Sinatra, Elvis and the Rolling Stones.

The night starts at 8pm. There is no entry fee.

Red rock n' roll

MUSIC: Come down to the The Four Horseshoes in Sherfield on Loddon this Friday to enjoy Red Aztek, a rock n' roll three piece covers band.

The group will be covering songs from bands such as Queen, Alice Cooper, Free, Rolling Stones, AC/DC and Pink Floyd.

The night kicks off at 8.30pm and is free to get in.

Musical youths

CLASSICAL: Basingstoke Area Youth Orchestra will be lighting up the stage at The Anvil on Sunday.

Eight of the Basingstoke Area Youth Ensembles and choirs from several local schools will present a showcase performance for all the family. The night will include songs from Les Misérables.

The performance starts at 7pm. Adult tickets are £14.

Peace of mind for the future

Why a Lasting Power of Attorney gives you just that

When you write a Will, it's not for your benefit. You do it because you want to ensure that you've done your best to protect family and loved ones; to ease pressure - emotionally and financially - when you're no longer here.

Making your Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) is something you can do for yourself - it's a precaution you can take to protect your finances, health and wellbeing.

As we age the odds of illness or accident resulting in limited physical or mental capacity increases and with it the ability to make our own decisions or choices - from the food we eat to the health care we receive - is diminished or lost. But you have a voice and that voice can be legally recognised.
By making your LPA you can elect those that you trust and want to make decisions on your behalf when you are no longer able to. You can choose one or several people and include restrictions and guidelines for your Attorney(s) to follow. Legally, they are required to follow certain principles, including amongst others:
(1) the assumption that you have capacity until it is established that you don't
(2) just because you've made an unwise decision does not mean you are assumed to be unable to make your own decisions and
(3) any decisions must be made in your best interests.

Without an LPA, your loved ones will face a lengthy, stressful and costly application to the Court of Protection for an appropriate person to be named as Deputy. What's most important to note is that it is the Court's decision who is named as Deputy and this may be someone you didn't quite trust to make decisions for you or in some cases, it may be an official who doesn't know you well enough.

Michael Usher Wills & Estate Planning can help you navigate this complex application process. Our friendly and efficient service helps you make the right decisions without feeling too frustrated or stressed by forms and legal requirements. We also offer a free Will review to ensure it is up to date and will still do the things you want it to do. Appointments are available Monday to Saturday at times that suit you, either at our offices or in your home if that is more comfortable for you. Find out what our customers are saying about us at www.checkaprofessional.com and www.trustpilot.com.

Skoda Yeti Outdoor SE L Drive – 2.0 TDi SCR 150PS 4x4

Yeti can handle great outdoors

By Tony Yates

FOR those needing a sturdy and versatile car that can handle outdoor living with no fuss, then the Skoda Yeti Outdoor is the one for you.

Since its launch, the Yeti has touched the hearts of many SUV enthusiasts – and won a whole host of awards such as Auto Express Driver Power customer satisfaction survey 2012, 2013 and 2015.

Power and efficiency

My test car was fitted with a 150PS 2.0-litre diesel engine. It's performance is not mind blowing but it does get a move on. Nought to 62mph comes in around 9.1sec and you can expect fuel consumption figures to easily reach 55.5mpg combined, plus low CO2 emissions of134g/km. Top speed is around 121mph.

On the road

I was really impressed by how the Yeti dealt with the lumps and bumps on our roads. This is the 4x4 version, which basically means it handles like a hot hatch into the corners and feels very controlled and steady when pushed to its limits.

But, I do feel the Yeti needs to give the driver a bit more feedback through the steering.

Overtaking is not too much of a problem if you are in the right gear. Ultimately, though, the Yeti is more about being a practical family SUV, with the comfort and stability of a 4x4.

Safety & technology

Inside, the Yeti looks great and has a nicely trimmed cabin, which is something Skoda has worked on a lot over time.

Rear leg room is good and the Yeti will easily accommodate a large family with ease. The quality and feel inside the cabin is very good and if you really wanted to take the Yeti on an off-road drive you can be assured that nothing will fall off or break thanks to Skoda's excellent build quality.

The level of standard equipment on the SE L Drive version starts with duel zone air conditioning, MP3 connection, cruise control, curtain airbags (front, passenger, side and knee airbags) heated front seats and heated front screen.

There are also daytime running lights, LED rear lights, front and rear parking sensors, 17-inch Origami alloy wheels, Amundsen satellite navigation with DAB, silver roof rails and Maxi-DOT trip computer.

To sum up

The Yeti Outdoor is perfect for anyone looking for a family vehicle that has rugged looks, exceptional safety features and some very clever technology, meaning it is more than capable of handling most off-road situations, slippery roads or rough ground with ease. If I was in the market right now then the Skoda Yeti Outdoor makes perfect sense to me.

Price: £26,100 OTR (excluding extras).

Rugged looks – the Skoda Yeti Outdoor is a very capable car off road

Holidays

Self-Catering Holiday Cottages overlooking the Beautiful Fowey River.

Cottages to sleep from 2 to 8 persons with stunning views.

If you have a cottage in this area and are thinking of holiday letting, please do get in touch. Alternatively if you have or are thinking of buying a second home in south east Cornwall but do not wish to rent it out and are worried because you are so far away, we will step in to help, making insurance checks or just to read the electric meter, giving you peace of mind someone is popping in to check the property.

Ice hockey 'will be lesser' with loss of Towalski

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE Bison head coach Doug Sheppard has paid tribute to Matt Towalksi, describing ice hockey in Britain as being "lesser" now that the player has hung up his skates.

The 33-year-old signed off from Bison after being named Coach's Player of the Year, capping off a long 17-year career for the forward.

"It's fair to say that they don't make players like Matt Towalksi these days," said Sheppard.

"He's a guy that gave us 100 per cent on the ice, every shift, backed up by a love of the game.

"The sport in this country will be lesser now that Matt has retired."

Towalksi started his career with Slough Jets where he received call-ups to the Great Britain u18s and u20s – winning a gold medal in the 03/04 season.

During his time representing Great Britain, he made 14 appearances, scoring 11 goals in a points haul of 20.

Towalski later played for Milton Keynes Lightning, where he won the 2006 play-off and a league title in 2010/09, Slough (again), and Bracknell before moving to Basingstoke, who he helped win the league last season.

"It's a sad moment to bring my career to an end but I can look back with pride on all that I achieved within the sport," said Towalski

"It's been a great pleasure to play for the club – from icing with Doug Sheppard, and the great bunch of guys in the dressing room, to a brilliant fanbase here.

"These are memories I will treasure forever and I would like to thank everyone for their support over the years."

Skipper's double

CRICKET: A double century on the final day from Yorkshire captain Gary Ballance put paid to Hampshire's chances of chalking up their second victory of the season.

Ballance scored 203 not out as the visitors drew their County Championship division one match at the Rose Bowl.

Hampshire remain unbeaten after three games with one win and two draws.

'Hero' finalists

AWARDS: Finalists have been chosen for this year's Basingstoke 'sporting hero' awards.

Jim Feughery-Murphy (karate), Daisy Coleman (powerboat racing) and the Amos family (Basingstoke Rugby Club) have all been nominated.

The awards evening is being hosted at the Haymarket Theatre on June 7.

'Craic' for Rose

GOLF: North Hampshire golfer Justin Rose will be appearing at the Irish Open for the first time in seven years later in the summer.

The 36-year-old – narrowly beaten at the Masters by Sergio Garcia earlier this month – said he was looking forward to competing in July.

He said to the BBC: "Irish fans are always a lot of fun to play in front of. It's always a good 'craic' out there!"

Bison 'will apply to play at highest level possible'

BASINGSTOKE Bison have revealed they will be applying to the English Ice Hockey Association (EIHA) to enter National Ice Hockey League (NIHL) South 1.

In a statement, the club confirmed they had received an email from Ken Taggart, chairman of the EIHA, informing the club on the future of the second tier of British Ice Hockey. It contained an advertisement to apply for the NIHL against the background of ongoing discussions.

The statement said "robust conversations have been entered into with all stakeholders in order to fully understand what this means for the Bison moving forwards".

Bison said they would be "active participants in a section meeting on May 7" and they want to ensure "the Herd play at the highest, sustainable level possible within the current league structures".

It continued: "We thank the fans for their patience and, once firm details are in place, we will update our fan base accordingly."

Champions crown memorable season with draw

LEAGUE champions Hartley Wintney capped off a memorable season with a draw in what was a mixed day for local non-league teams.

The Row have won 35 games, drawn six and lost just three, amassing 111 points from their 44 games to be crowned champions of the Combined Counties Premier Division.

On Saturday, they drew 1-1 at home with Walton and Hersham.

Hartley Wintney opened the scoring through Jack French who converted from Sam Argent's right hand cross on 58 minutes. But Walton fought their way back into the game on 74 minutes when Shaun White equalised.

The visitors had a further chance to take the lead a few minutes later but 'keeper Joe Maddock saved from a one-on-one dual.

Both sides had further chances to win the game but neither could capitalise, so they shared the spoils.

Whitchurch United's dismal season ended in a 5-0 defeat at Hamworth United.

The Jam Boys were relegated from the Wessex Premier Division. In Wessex League Division One, Tadley Calleva chalked up a 3-2 away win at Laverstock and Ford.

Two goals from George Hallahan and one from Brett Denham secured the victory for Calleva.

Lead squandered

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies shared the spoils in a thrilling 3-3 draw at Exeter City Ladies on Sunday.

Michelle Kimber, Jasmine Meichle and Helen Ogle all scored for Town in the South West Division One clash.

They had squandered a 2-0 lead.

Biggest crowd of season see 'Stoke finish in 12th

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE Town's largest crowd of the season of 617 was treated to a 1-1 draw with Hitchin Town in what was potentially the last match played at Camrose.

The Dragons went into the final league game of the season in good form, with three wins and two draws.

They had already secured a top-half finish thanks to a another 1-1 draw at Dorchester Town last time out.

A win could have seen them end in 11th, compared to the Canaries who will be participating in the play-offs after finishing fourth.

In an entertaining first half, momentum ebbed and flowed with numerous chances for both teams.

Ben Walster came close for the visitors with a free kick while Liam Brooks fired over the bar.

For Basingstoke, Nana Owusu tested Michael Johnson in the Hitchin goal with a fierce shot.

Then Aaron Redford had a sharp volley on the turn saved, hit a post and then bounce agonisingly across the line.

A Matt Partridge volley was cleared off the line and Aaron Jarvis was thwarted by 'keeper Johnson after hesitating when through on goal.

Jarvis made amends when Basingstoke finally broke the deadlock five minutes before half-time.

The striker scored his 17th goal of the season after receiving the ball with his back to goal.

He swivelled to volley into the net despite the goalkeeper getting a strong hand on the ball.

As the half drew to a close, Redford had a low shot which bounced narrowly wide.

After half-time, Hitchin hit back with an equaliser on 58 minutes when Matt Lench looped a header over Alex Tokarczyk after a deep cross from the right.

Both sides then had chances to win. First Jarvis headed wide from close range before Ashleigh Artwell was inches from turning in a low cross.

For the visitors, Jay Dowie's shot was crucially blocked.

Then Artwell seemed to be fouled on the edge of the box, but the referee waved away frantic penalty appeals as both sides shared the spoils.
